Sir,

vide S.N-9 / c 1/9 / (R) /

I regret very much that some of your catalogues of books published in Mysore State were returned to you through the post. The reason was that we have lately received so many packets of understamped printed matter, on which we have frequently had to pay as much as 1/- to 1/6, that I gave instructions that if this continued the packets were to be returned to the postman. We greatly appreciate your catalogues and hope that you will continue sending them.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
